MRS. DWIGHT CURTIS COLLINS
the former Miss Cornelia Anne Guill

Miss Cornelia Anne Guill and Mr. Dwight Curtis Collins were married Saturday, June 1, at four o'clock at Memorial United Methodist Church in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burke H. Guill of Appomattox, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Carl A. Collins, Jr. of Lynchburg.

The Reverend Henry E. Riley and Dr. Collins, pastor of Beulah Baptist Church in Lynchburg, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mr. Carlton Collins, brother of the groom, provided the program of wedding music. Included in the nuptial recital was "Te Deum", an original composition of Mr. Collins.

After presenting her mother a long-stemmed yellow rose, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of candlelight peau de soie was covered by silk organza. The bodice and long sleeves were fashioned from candlelight chantilly lace, as was the floor length veil. She carried a bouquet of orchids surrounded by yellow rosebuds. The bride's gown was designed and made by her aunt, Mrs. Hubert Martin. Prior to the recessional, the bride presented a long-stemmed yellow rose to the groom's mother.

Miss Jane Haywood Guill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Freddie Pattie of Dumfries, cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Boteler and Miss Karen Cunningham, both of Richmond; Mrs. Johnnie Giles of Newport News; Miss Sharon Guill, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox; and Miss Debbie Kauffman of Richmond.

Miss Valerie Guill, cousin of the bride, and Miss Amy Corvello, both of Appomattox, served as flower girls.

All attendants wore dresses of satin flocked with small flowers in shades of green, yellow and white. The bridesmaids and honor attendants also wore matching, face-framing straw hats and carried a single, long-stemmed yellow rose.

Mr. Millard Harvey, the bride's uncle, was the groom's bestman. The ushers included Mr. Andy Riffe, Mr. Ray Ferguson and Mr. Danny Mason, all of Lynchburg; Mr. Wilson Harvey of Farmville; Mr. Randy Auvil of Hopewell; and Mr. Johnny Cole of Appomattox.

Master Randy Rusell of Keysville, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Miss Dale Brown of Lynchburg served as register attendant.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of blue knit, with the bodice and long sleeves of matching lace. She wore a white orchid. The groom's mother chose a floor-length, peach colored gown, with long organza sleeves, which was also accented with a white orchid.

Mrs. William Corvello served as mistress of ceremony for the wedding.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained guests at a reception at the Falling River County Club. Amid floral decorations of magnolia blossoms and candles, Mrs. Mitchell Lewis and Mrs. Crawford Davidson provided a light buffet. Assisting with the cake were Mrs. Julian Guill and Mrs. Patsy Moore. Serving at the punch bowls were Mrs. Tom Guill, Mrs. Herman Harvey, Mrs. Millard Harvey, Miss Stevie Zehler and Miss Kathie Keast.

Following a brief honeymoon trip to Williamsburg, Mrs. Collins will return to the Richmond Memorial Hospital School of Nursing where she will graduate on June 7. After graduation, Mr. and Mrs. Collins will reside in Lynchburg where he is employed with the Virginia Funeral Chapel and she will soon begin work at Virginia Baptist Hospital.
